

The Dill's Tavern Chronicle

October, 2007

Northern York County Historical and Preservation Society, 35 Greenbrier Lane, Dillsburg, PA 17019 Ph. 717- 502-1440

Purpose: To promote and encourage the study, collection, and preservation of the historical heritage of the Northern York County area.

The Excitement of Farmer's Fair will be huge this year!

There will be early Colonial and Native American sites, Civil War camps and WW II presenters. Cooking will be done on the Tavern hearth for sampling. The 1860's ladies would like to have period dancing in the courtyard. The Tavern will also have garbed guides telling of it's history throughout the different periods of its existence.

OCT. 19th. FRIDAY thru SATURDAY EVENING ENCAMPMENTS:

Noon Friday The Pennsylvania Bucktails and their Ladies will begin to set up camp. Their presence here will no doubt attract the notice of some Rebel troops canvassing the area so be prepared to experience some skirmishes between these Union and Confederate troops throughout the afternoon on Sat.

However the warfare will not deter the Ladies from enjoying period dances in the court yard. 1 o'clock.

After the parades the Bucktails welcome visitors to join them around the camp fires for historical information of the life and times of their unit.

Oct 21st. Sunday morning 10:30 am all are invited to attend the Heritage Church Service at St. John's Lutheran (Franklin Church) where our members attend in period garb and participate in the readings and present a memorial gun salute in the cemetery.

Native Americans, mostly of the Mohawk tribe and the Colonials will also be on site. All with tales to tell of their experiences.

Tales of the 82nd. Airborne →

Here's an exciting 'hands on' opportunity with WWII equipment used by the brave paratroopers who made those dangerous drops into Normandy with little more than cricket clickers for communication.

Duncan Trussell & his wife in period garb brings their collection and vast knowledge of this era to our celebration. At Rt. Co. E, 505th. PIR prepare for the D-Day invasion. Photo courtesy of Anthony Amorose

Saturday: Through out the day (Weather Permitting), Moms, Dads, Kids, Grams, Gramps, Et Al
Enjoy the thrill of screening for artifacts at our dig sites!

9am – 4pm Garbed tours of Dill's Tavern relating history of the different eras

11am, Samples of open hearth cooking by Linda Zeigler will be available

11am till gone, Bar B Q Chicken Lunches will be sold at both Maple Shade Barn and the Tavern

Once again Bill Wessels lends Haar's Trolley to the festivities!

Save your tootsies by jumping on the trolley and travel from the square to any of NYCHAPS' properties. Perhaps you can come up with a few lines of "Clang, Clang, Clang went the Trolley"

First Friday at Dills ~ Oct 5

The next First Friday event will feature Dan Dropkin, solo guitarist. Dan synthesizes many American music styles in the tradition of Jazz and Folk artists. He will complement your evening of casual conversation with solid, sophisticated, and unobtrusive music. Sam McKinney will also be setting up his grill outside for those who wish to bring their own snacks to enjoy a light cookout under the stars.

7 – 10 pm ~ $10.00 per person. ~ BYOB ~ 21yr. Min

This month's event is being underwritten by Dillsburg Area Business Association

Win an Evening of 'Dinner at the Tavern' cooked over the Open Hearth

Tickets are currently available at all NYCHAPS meetings, daily at the Book House, and at the Tavern itself during Farmers Fair.

The Winning tickets will be drawn at the Nov. 1 NYCHAPS meeting.

The Dinner will be served on Nov. 10, 2007

2007 is the Year for the House Tours

With 2007 being the house tour year Dill's Tavern will be on the tour plus be the site for refreshments.

Date: Sunday, November 25th. ~ Time: 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm ~ Tickets: $10.00 prior or $12.00 on event day

Tickets will be available soon at The Blossom Shop, The DABA Office, & Gruber's Pharmacy

A Special Invitation is Extended

Mary Dill

invites all to an "At Home" at her husband's Tavern.

Guests need not fear that they will be disturbed by persons from the coach trade as Tea will be served in the family quarters for this occasion.

Your presence is most graciously welcomed.

Sunday, December 9, in the year of our Lord 2007

2 O'clock in the afternoon

$15.00 Tariff

Ticket sales will begin during the Farmer's Fair Festivities

The Tavern Committee:

Bob Eichelberger-Chairman, Mervin Ice, Larry Klase, Joanne Klase, Connie Trostle, and Greg Wonders

Web Site www.northernYorkhistorical.org

E-Mail Address nychaps@northernYorkhistorical.org